Louis : According to me, the movie of Hitchcock is more interesting because there are no flashbacks in the story. Then, the action is more dynamics. In the second film, the place of Patrick Malloney is to important and I don't like the performance of Susan George. And you, what do you think about that ?